

ABOUT THE PANTILES PLAYERS

The Pantiles Players was founded in 1942 to provide wartime entertainment. The company was based in Tunbridge Wells. In recent years it has become difficult to find suitable venues in Tunbridge Wells. In 2016 The Players transferred their open-air productions to The King's Arms in Rotherfield. It is now merging with The Rotherfield Players, a thriving company with a good tradition. We look to the future with optimism.

The Noah's Ark Inn is an ideal venue for such theatrical ventures and these began in 1967 when they were first presented by The Tunbridge Wells Drama Club. This is therefore the 50th anniversary. Performances take place in the garden adjoining the Inn. The play will be performed indoors in wet weather. Tickets are obtainable at the pub or by completing this order form. A pre-show menu is available (please see over)

ABOUT THE PLAY

We are in Athens. Duke Theseus is about to marry Hippolyta, the warrior queen that he has vanquished in battle. Four star-crossed lovers escape into the forest. At the same time a group of Athenian workmen go into the forest to rehearse a play they wish to perform at the Duke's nuptials. But the forest is not a safe place. Oberon and Titania, the fairy king and queen, have quarrelled and they too are roaming the forest.

This timeless drama is full of comedy and poignancy, magic and slap-stick humour. The lovers' quarrel is as fresh today as the day it was written in the 1590s.
